8.10

Additional conditions for licensed bodies:

- (a) If the only, or last remaining, authorised individual in relation to a licensed activity, whose role in a licensed body ensures that the body remains a licensable body as defined in Rule 1.2(q):
 - (i) is committed to prison in civil or criminal proceedings;
 - (ii) becomes and continues to be unable to attend to the practice of the body because of incapacity caused by illness, accident or age;
 - (iii) becomes and continues to be a person who lacks capacity under Part 1 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005;
 - (iv) abandons the practice of the body; or
 - (v) is made subject to a condition on his/her practising certificate, registration or equivalent authorisation by an approved regulator other than the SRA which would be breached by the body must inform the SRA within seven days of the relevant event and must within 28 days of the relevant event either ensure that the body becomes a licensable body again without reference to that person, or cease to practise.

8.11

Employment and remuneration of disqualified persons

An authorised body must not employ or remunerate:

- a person who is subject to an order under Section 43 of the Solicitors Act 1974, without the SRA's written permission;
- (b) any person whose name has been struck off the roll, who is suspended from practising as a solicitor, or whose practising certificate has been suspended whilst he/she is an undischarged bankrupt, without the SRA's written permission; or
- (c) a person who is disqualified from being an employee of a body licensed by the SRA or any other approved regulator.

Guidance notes

- (i) Rule 8.2 deals with the need for firms to have suitable arrangements for compliance (see also chapter 7 of the Code of Conduct (Management of your business)). What needs to be covered by a firm's compliance plan will depend on factors such as the size and nature of the firm, its work and its areas of risk. Firms will need to analyse and monitor the effectiveness of their compliance arrangements before applying for authorisation and on an on-going basis. Common areas for consideration will include:
 - clearly defined governance arrangements providing a transparent framework for responsibilities within the firm
 - appropriate accounting procedures
 - a system for ensuring that only the appropriate people authorise payments from client account
 - a system for ensuring that undertakings are given only when intended, and compliance with them is monitored and enforced
 - o appropriate checks on new staff or contractors
 - a system for ensuring that basic regulatory deadlines are not missed e.g.
 submission of the firm's accountant's report, arranging indemnity cover, renewal of practising certificates and registrations, renewal of all lawyers' licences to practise and provision of regulatory information

- a system for monitoring, reviewing and managing risks
- ensuring that issues of conduct are given appropriate weight in decisions the firm takes, whether on client matters or firm-based issues such as funding
- o file reviews
- appropriate systems for supporting the development and training of staff
- obtaining the necessary approvals of managers, owners and COLP/COFA.
- Rule 8.4 confirms the legal position that for a firm to provide services to clients, the services/activities must be covered by the terms of its authorisation and, where it is a reserved legal activity such as litigation, the firm must have a manager or an employee who is authorised to do that work.

 For example, a firm cannot provide litigation services, even if its licence permits it to, if its only lawyer is a licensed conveyancer.
- (iii) Rule 8.5 requires all authorised bodies to have a COLP and a COFA. For COLPs and COFAs of licensed bodies, compliance with their duties as Heads of Legal Practice and Heads of Finance and Administration under sections 91 and 92 respectively of the LSA will be equivalent to compliance with their obligations under Rule 8.5.
- The roles of COLP and COFA are a fundamental part of a firm's compliance and governance arrangements. The firm must therefore ensure that any person designated as its COLP or COFA is of sufficient seniority and in a position of sufficient power and responsibility to enable him or her to have access to all management systems and arrangements and all other relevant information including client files and business information. The existence of compliance officers in a firm and the requirements on them to ensure that the firm, as well as its managers and employees, are complying with the regulatory arrangements (COLP) and the SRA Accounts Rules (COFA) is not a substitute for the firm's and managers' responsibilities and their obligations to comply with Rule 8.1 (Compliance with regulatory arrangements). Firms and managers need to take care not to obstruct, whether intentionally or unwittingly, a COLP or COFA in fulfilling their role.
- (v) COLPs and COFAs are responsible for ensuring that the firm has systems and controls in place to enable the firm, as well as its managers and employees, to comply with the requirements on them. The firm and its managers are not absolved from any of their own obligations and remain fully responsible for compliance.
- (vi) Those designated as COLP will need to be in a position to be able to discharge the role. They will need to consider whether they are in a position to, for example:
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the terms of the firm's authorisation
 - o as soon as reasonably practicable, report to the SRA any failure to

- comply with the terms of the authorisation
- take all reasonable steps to ensure that the authorised body, and any of its employees and managers, comply with the SRA's regulatory arrangements (see section 176 of the LSA)
- as soon as reasonably practicable, report to the SRA such failures by those persons to comply with their duties as specified in the SRA's regulatory arrangements
- o take all reasonable steps to ensure that non-authorised persons comply with the duty imposed by section 90 of the LSA (duty not to do anything which causes or substantially contributes to a breach of the SRA's regulatory arrangements by an authorised body or its employee or manager)
- as soon as reasonably practicable, report to the SRA any failure by a non-authorised person to comply with that duty.
- (vii) Those designated as COFA will need to be in a position to be able to discharge the role. They will need to consider whether they are in a position to, for example:
 - ensure that they have access to all accounting records
 - carry out regular checks on the accounting systems
 - carry out file and ledger reviews
 - ensure that the reporting accountant has prompt access to all the information needed to complete the accountant's report
 - take steps to ensure that breaches of the SRA Accounts Rules are remedied promptly, and report any breach to the SRA as required
 - monitor, review and manage risks to compliance with the SRA Accounts Rules.
- (viii) An important aspect of the roles of COLP and COFA is the need to report any breaches to the SRA. Although it will commonly be appropriate for the firm to take steps to remedy breaches immediately, this does not obviate the need for compliance officers to make a report in compliance with Rule 8.5.
- (ix) Rule 8.7 imposes information requirements on authorised bodies. There are other reporting and information requirements that apply to individuals or firms. See for example:

(A) SRA requirements

Rules 3, 8.7, 8.8, 8.9 and 8.10 and 18, 23, 24 and 25 of these rules
Rule 18 of the Practice Framework Rules
Rule 35 of the SRA Accounts rules
Regulations 4.3, 4.5 and 14 of the SRA Practising Regulations
Chapter 10 of the Code of Conduct.

(B) Statutory requirements

Section 84 of the Solicitors Act 1974 (notification of a solicitor's place of business)

Paragraph 21 of Schedule 13 to the LSA (non-authorised persons proposing to acquire an interest in a licensed body have continuing notification requirements. Note, it is an offence to fail to comply with the section 21 notification requirements).

(x) The scope of the duty in Rule 8.11 is beyond the strict employer-servant relationship (contract of service) and includes a relationship founded on a contract for services or indirect arrangements which are intended to have the effect of frustrating this rule.

Rule 9 - Further conditions

9.1 The SRA may at any time impose one or more further conditions on an authorisation if it considers:

- (a) that:
 - (i) the condition would limit, restrict, halt or prevent an activity or activities on the part of the body, or of a manager, employee, or interest holder of the body, which is putting or is likely to put at risk the interests of clients, third parties or the public;
 - (ii) the condition would prevent or limit the activities of a manager or employee of the body who is considered unsuitable to undertake a particular activity, either at all or save as specified in the condition;
 - (iii) the condition would limit, halt or prevent a risk to clients, third parties or the public arising from a business agreement or association which the body has or is likely to enter into, or a business practice which the body has or is likely to adopt;
 - (iv) a relevant insolvency event has occurred in relation to the body but the SRA does not propose at that time to suspend or revoke the authorisation under Rule 224;
 - (v) the SRA considers that imposing the condition will necessary to facilitate effective monitoring by the SRA of compliance with its regulatory arrangements on the part of the body, its managers, employees or interest holders;
 - (vi) the SRA considers that imposing the condition will require the body concerned to take specified steps conducive to the proper, effective or efficient carrying on of a legal activity by that body; or
 - (vii) the SRA considers that imposing a condition is necessary in order to ensure compliance with the regulatory objectives;

and

- (b) that it is in the public interest to impose the condition.
- 9.2 A condition imposed under Rule 9.1 takes effect from the date on which the condition is imposed unless otherwise specified by the SRA.

Guidance note

Rule 9.1 permits the SRA to impose conditions "at any time", if certain criteria are met. This includes on the approval of a person under Part 4 of these rules or at the time of modification of the terms of an authorisation under Rule 10.

Rule 10 – Modification of terms and conditions of an authorisation

- 10.1 Subject to Rule 10.2, tThe SRA may at any time, on the application of an authorised body or without such an application being made, modify:
 - (a) any terms of an authorisation, including that specify the reserved legal activities that thean authorised body is entitled to carry on by virtue of the authorisation, if it considers it appropriate to do so having regard to the regulatory objectives, and:
 - on the application of the authorised body; or
 - (ii) if the SRA considers it appropriate to do so, without such an application being made; and having regard to the regulatory objectives;

- (b) any further conditions of an authorisation, having regard to the criteria in imposed under Rule 9-:
 - on the application of the authorised body; or
 - if the SRA considers it appropriate to do so, without such an application being made; and having regard to the criteria in rule 9.

10.2 The SRA must not modify the general conditions in Rule 8.1 with respect to any authorised bodies.

Guidance notes

- The certificate of authorisation of a licensed body will set out the reserved activities that the body is entitled to carry out. A licensed body may apply to change the categories of those activities at any time, or the SRA may do so (see also Rule 10), for example if the body no longer carries out that type of work or if there is an identified risk to the public in the body continuing to provide certain services (see section 86 of the LSA). Firms are also able to apply for a waiver of these rules, including the general conditions in Rule 8 (except Rule 8.1), under Rule 12 (Waivers).
- Authorised bodies are authorised to carry out non-reserved legal activities as well as the reserved activities for which they are authorised.
- Multi-disciplinary practices which provide a range of different services, some only of which are regulated by the SRA, will need to ensure that it is clear, both within and outside the firm, through which part of the business (and therefore under which regulatory system) non-reserved services are provided. (See chapter 8 of the Code of Conduct.)

11.1 If a conflict arises between:

- (a) a requirement imposed:
 - (i) on an authorised body or on an employee or manager of the body by the SRA as the regulator of that body, and-a requirement imposed
 - (ii) on an individual manager or employee of that body by another approved regulator; or then the requirement imposed by the SRA prevails over the requirement imposed by the other approved regulator,

- (b) a requirement imposed:
 - on an authorised body non-SRA firm or on an employee or manager of the firm by another approved regulator as the regulator of that firm, and a requirement imposed
 - (ii) on an individual manager or employee of that body firm by the SRA;

then the requirement imposed on the authorised body by the other approved regulator prevails over the requirement imposed by the SRA.

Rule 12 - Waivers

- Subject to rule 12.2 below and to provisions in any enactments or the SRA's regulatory arrangements affecting its ability to waive any requirements, the SRA shall have power to waive in writing the provisions of these rules for a particular purpose or purposes expressed in such waiver, and to attach conditions to or revoke such waiver, at its own discretion.
- The SRA must not grant a waiver that modifies the general conditions in Rule8.1 with respect to any authorised bodies.
- A waiver cannot be granted by the SRA under Rule 12 in respect of the reserved legal activities that an authorised body is entitled to carry on or any conditions of authorisation imposed under Rule 9.

Guidance notes

(i) A waiver cannot be granted where to do so would run counter to the overall purpose of the rule. In addition, many of the requirements set out in various Acts such as the LSA and AJA are mandatory provisions which, in spite of Rule 12 above, the SRA does not have the power to waive. The following are examples from the LSA:

(a) Management

- (A) Schedule 11 para 11-14 the rules must include that a licensed body must at all times have an individual designated as Head of Legal Practice and one designated as Head of Finance and Administration (in these rules referred to as COLP and COFA). This designation must be approved by the SRA, which must be satisfied that the designated individuals are suitable to carry out the duties. Rule 8.5 reflects this and therefore cannot be waived;
- (b) Schedule 11 para 17 rules must provide that the licensed body must at all times have suitable arrangements in place to ensure that it, its managers and employees comply with the regulatory arrangements and that any employees carrying out legal activities will maintain the professional principles. Rule 8.1 reflects this and therefore cannot be waived;
- (b) Duration, suspension, modification and revocation of licence
 - (A) Schedule 11 para 26(1) rules must provide criteria for the SRA to use in deciding whether to suspend, revoke or end the suspension of a licence. Rule 22 reflects this and therefore cannot be waived.
- (ii) A waiver of these rules "in writing" includes any form of written electronic communication normally used for business purposes, such as emails.

PART 4 – APPROVAL OF MANAGERS, OWNERS AND COMPLIANCE OFFICERS

Rule 123 – Application

- 123.1 This part governs the SRA's determination of applications for:
 - (a) approval of an authorised body's managers and owners as fit and proper, pursuant to Rule 8.6(a); and
 - (b) approval of an authorised body's compliance officers, as fit and proper to be designated as such pursuant to Rule 8.5(a) and (c).
- 123.2 The SRA will deem aA person is deemed to be approved by the SRA as fit and propersuitable to be a manager or owner of an authorised body under this Part if:
 - (a) that person is:

- (i) a solicitor who holds a current practising certificate; or
- (ii) an REL;
- (iii) an RFL; or
- (ii♥) an authorised body;
- (b) there is no condition on the person's practising certificate, registration or authorisation as appropriate, preventing or restricting them from being a manager, owner or interest holder of an authorised body or being a sole practitioner;
- (c) the SRA is notified in advance of the person becoming a manager or owner of the authorised body and is provided with any information about that person which it requires; and
- (d) the SRA has not withdrawn its approval of that person to be a manager or owner under Rule 176.

Rule 134 – Approval process

- 134.1 An application for approval of a manager, owner or compliance officer may be made by an applicant or an authorised body and must include evidence to satisfy the SRA that the candidate is fit and propersuitable to be a manager, owner or compliance officer of the body, as appropriate.
- 134.2 The applicant or authorised body, as appropriate, must:
 - (a) co-operate, and secure the co-operation of the candidate, to assist the SRA to obtain all information and documentation the SRA requires in order to determine the application;
 - (b) obtain all other information and documentation in relation to the candidate which the prescribed form requires the body to obtain and keep; and
 - (c) keep all information and documentation under (b) above for a period of not less than 6 years after the person concerned has ceased to be a manager, owner or compliance officer of the body.
- 134.3 The candidate must declare in writing on the face of the application that the information supplied about them is correct and complete.

- 134.4 The SRA's decision to approve or refuse approval must be notified in writing to the applicant or authorised body as appropriate, and, separately to the candidate as soon as possible.
- 134.5 The SRA may, at the time of granting its approval or at any time subsequently, make its approval of a person to be an owner, manager or compliance officer of an authorised body subject to such conditions on the body's authorisation as it considers appropriate having regard to the criteria in Rule 9.
- 134.6 If the SRA proposes to object to a candidate becoming an owner of an applicant or authorised body, or to approve such a person becoming an owner subject to conditions, it must give the candidate and the body a warning notice and consider any representations made by them to the SRA within the prescribed period.
- 134.7 The SRA may issue a conditional approval or objection without a warning notice under 143.6 if the application for approval has been made after the grant of authorisation and the SRA considers it necessary or desirable to dispense with the warning notice for the purpose of protecting any of the regulatory objectives.
- 134.8 The SRA may at any time require the production of information or documentation from:
 - (a) a person who has been approved as an owner, manager or compliance officer under this Part;
 - (b) an authorised body of which that person is a manager, owner or compliance officer, or
 - (c) the body which originally obtained approval for that person and holds information and documentation under 143.2(c);

in order to satisfy the SRA that the person met, meets, or continues to meet the criteria for approval.

Guidance notes

- See also the guidance notes to Rule 1 regarding ownership and material interest.
- (ii) The SRA's notification "in writing" includes any form of written electronic communication normally used for business purposes, such as emails.

Rule 145 – Criteria for the SRA's assessment of fitness and proprietysuitability

[To be consulted on in October]

15.1 When considering whether a candidate is suitable to be a manager, owner or compliance officer of the body, as appropriate, the SRA will take into account the criteria set out in the SRA Suitability Test and any other relevant information.

Guidance notes

- As well as evidence about the candidate, the Suitability Test takes into account evidence about the honesty and integrity of a person that the candidate is related to, affiliated with, or acts together with where the SRA has reason to believe that that person may have an influence over the way in which the candidate will exercise their role.
- See also regulation 6 of the SRA Practising Regulations 2009 under which the SRA has the power to impose conditions on a practising certificate or registration which restrict an individual's ability to be involved in an authorised body.
- (iii) Specific provisions exist in the LSA about imposing conditions on the approval of owners of a licensed body:
 - Por the approval of ownership on an application for a licence, see paragraph 17 of Schedule 13 to the LSA. For the approval of ownership on a change of interests after a licence is issued, see paragraph 28 of that Schedule. These give the SRA the power to approve an owner's or a prospective owner's holding subject to conditions where the Rule 15 criteria are not met in relation to that investment, but only if the SRA considers that, if the conditions are complied with, it will be appropriate for the owner to hold the interest.
 - ownership interest, see paragraph 33 of Schedule 13 to the LSA. This gives the SRA the power to impose conditions (or further conditions) on a person's holding of an interest, if the SRA is not satisfied that the Rule 15 criteria are met, or if the SRA is satisfied that a condition imposed under paragraphs 17, 28 or 33 of Schedule 13 (see above) on the person's holding of that interest has not been, or is not being, complied with. The SRA may only use the paragraph 33 power if it considers that, if the conditions are complied with, it will be appropriate for the owner to hold the interest without the approval requirements being met.
- (iv) Under paragraphs 19 and 20 of Schedule 13 to the LSA the SRA has the power, when dealing with an application for a licence, to object to the holding of an interest if it is not satisfied that the rule 15 criteria are met in relation to that holding. The mechanism for objecting is set out in those paragraphs.

Rule 156 – Effect of approval

- 156.1 Approval takes effect from the date of the decision unless otherwise stated and continues until:
 - (a) it is withdrawn by the SRA; or

(b) the approved person ceases to be a manager, interest holder or compliance officer of the authorised body, as appropriate

Rule 167 – Withdrawal of approval

- 167.1 Where the SRA has granted an approval of a person to be a manager, owner or compliance officer of a body under this Part (including a deemed approval under Rule 123.2), it may subsequently withdraw that approval if:
 - (a) it is not satisfied that an approved person met or meets the criteria for approval or continues to meet the criteria for approval in Rule 145;
 - (b) it is satisfied that a condition imposed on the body's authorisation under Rule 134.5 has not been, or is not being complied with;
 - (c) it is satisfied that the approved person has breached a duty or obligation imposed upon them in or under the SRA's regulatory arrangements or any enactments; or
 - (d) information or documentation is not promptly supplied in response to a request made under Rule 134.8.
- 167.2 Where withdrawal of approval relates to a director of a company, the SRA may set separate dates for that individual ceasing to be a director and disposing of his or her shares.

Rule 178 – Temporary emergency approvals for compliance officers

- 178.1 If an authorised body ceases to have a COLP or COFA whose designation has been approved by the SRA, the authorised body must immediately and in any event within 7 days:
 - (a) notify the SRA;
 - (b) designate another manager [or employee] to replace its previous COLP or COFA, as appropriate; and
 - (c) make an application to the SRA for temporary approval of the new COLP or COFA, as appropriate.
- 178.2 The SRA may grant a temporary approval under this rule if:
 - it is satisfied that the authorised body could not reasonably have commenced an application for approval of designation in advance of the non-compliance;
 - (b) on the face of the application and any other information immediately before the SRA, there is no evidence suggesting that the new compliance officer is not fit and propersuitable to carry out the duties imposed on them under these rules.

- 178.3 Temporary approval under this rule:
 - (a) may be granted initially for 28 days;
 - may be granted to have effect from the date the body ceases to have a COLP or COFA whose designation has been approved;
 - (bc) may be extended in response to a reasonable request by the authorised body;
 - (ed) must be extended pending determination of a substantive application for approval commenced in accordance with Rule 17.4;
 - (de) may be granted or extended subject to such conditions on the authorised body's authorisation as the SRA thinks fit having regard to the criteria in Rule 9;
 - (ef) has effect only while the criteria in Rule 8.5(g) are met;
 - (fg) if granted, cannot prejudice the discretion of the SRA to refuse a substantive application for approval of designation or to impose any conditions on that approval; and
 - (gh) in exceptional circumstances, and for reasonable cause, may be withdrawn at any time.
- 178.4 If granted temporary approval under Rule 178.3 above for its designation of a new COLP or COFA, the authorised body must:
 - (a) designate a permanent COLP or COFA, as appropriate; and
 - (b) submit a substantive application for approval of that designation under Rule 132;

before the expiry of the temporary approval or any extension of that approval by the SRA.

PART 5 – NOTIFICATION, EFFECT AND DURATION OF AUTHORISATION

Rule 189 – Notification of decisions

189.1 The SRA must notify its decision and reasons in writing when it:

- (a) refuses an application made under these rules;
- (b) grants an application subject to a condition;
- (c) refuses a permission required under a condition on a body's authorisation; or
- (d) withdraws its approval of a candidate under Rules 167 and 178.
- 189.2 The notification in Rule 189.1 must be given to the applicant body and to the candidate concerned, where appropriate.
- 189.3 The SRA must give 28 days written notice:
 - (a) to the authorised body concerned, when the SRA decides to impose a condition on an authorised body's authorisation at any time after the grant of the authorisation;
 - (b) to the body and the individual concerned, when the SRA decides to withdraw an approval granted under Rule 167 and 178.
- The SRA may shorten or dispense with the 28 day period under Rule 189.3(a) if it is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so.

Guidance note

The SRA's notification "in writing" may be by any form of written electronic communication normally used for business purposes, such as emails.

Rule 1920 – Notifying third parties of decisions

- 1920.1 The SRA may, if it considers it in the public interest to do so, publish and notify any persons of a decision concerning a body or an individual made under these rules, including but not limited to:
 - an authorised person of which the body or individual concerned is a current, past or prospective manager, employee or interest holder,
 - (b) any approved regulator,
 - (c) any statutory regulator;
 - (d) the Legal Services Board;
 - (e) the Legal Ombudsman;
 - (f) the regulatory body for any profession of which the individual concerned is a member or which regulates the body concerned;

(g) any law enforcement agency.

Rule 201 – Effect and validity of authorisation

- 201.1 A grant of authorisation takes effect from the date of the decision unless otherwise stated.
- 201.2 Authorisation continues in force unless it ceases to have effect in accordance with Rule 201.3.
- 201.3 An authorised body's authorisation ceases to have effect so that the body is no longer authorised by the SRA under these rules:
 - (i) from the time that the authorisation is revoked under Rule 242;
 - (ii) at any time during which the authorisation is suspended;
 - (iii) subject to Part 6, if the body is wound up or for any other reason ceases to exist; or
 - (iv) if in relation to a licensed body, the body is issued with a licence by another approved regulator.

Rule 242 – Revocation and suspension of authorisation

- 242.1 Subject to Rule 223, the SRA may revoke or suspend a body's authorisation, where:
 - (a) in the case of an authorised body:
 - authorisation was granted as a result of error, misleading or inaccurate information, or fraud;
 - (ii) the body is no longer or becomes ineligible to be authorised in accordance with the criteria set out in Rule 6;
 - (iii) the SRA is satisfied that the body has no intention of carrying on the legal activities for which it has been authorised under these rules:
 - (iv) the body has failed to provide any information required by the SRA under these rules;
 - (v) the body has failed to pay any fee payable to the SRA under these rules;
 - (vi) a relevant insolvency event has occurred in relation to the body;

- (vii) the body makes an application to the SRA for its authorisation to be revoked or suspended;
- (viii) the SRA has decided to exercise its intervention powers under section 102 of and Schedule 14 to the LSA, Parts I and II of Schedule 1 to the Solicitors Act 1974, Paragraph 5 of Schedule 14 to the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 and Part II of Schedule 1 to the Solicitors Act 1974 or Paragraph 32 of Schedule 2 to the AJA_and Part II of Schedule 1 to the Solicitors Act 1974, as appropriate;
- (ix) the body, or an owner, interest holder, manager or employee of the body fails to comply with the duties imposed by or under these rules or under any enactments including payment of any fine or other financial penalty imposed on the body by the SRA, the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal, the High Court or the [Appellate Body];

(x)

- (A) in the case of a licensed body, the body fails to comply with Rule 8.6(b) (prohibition on disqualified managers); or
- (B) in the case of an authorised body, the body fails to comply with Rule 8.11 (employment or remuneration of disqualified persons);

and

- the manager or employee concerned was disqualified as a result of breach of the duties imposed upon the manager or employee by sections 176 or 90 of the LSA;
- (xi) the body does not comply with Rule 8.5 (compliance officers);
- (xii) the body fails to comply with Rule 8.6 (management and control); or
- (xiii) for any other reason it is in the public interest;
- (b) in the case of a recognised body, the body is no longer a legal services body; or
- (eb) in the case of a licensed body:
 - (i) the body is no longer a licensable body;

- (ii) a non-authorised person holds an interest in the licensed body:
 - (Ai) as a result of the person taking a step in circumstances where that constitutes an offence under paragraph 24(1) of Schedule 13 to the LSA (whether or not the person is charged with or convicted of an offence under that paragraph),
 - (Bii) in breach of conditions imposed under paragraphs 17, 28 or 33 of that Schedule, or
 - (Ciii) the person's holding of which is subject to an objection by the licensing authority under paragraph 31 or 36 of that Schedule.
- 242.2 The SRA must not revoke or suspend an authorisation under this rule:
 - unless it has first provided the authorised body with an opportunity to provide representations to it regarding the issues giving rise to the proposed revocation or suspension;
 - (ab) unless it has first given the authorised body notice of its intention to revoke or suspend the authorisation; anda written notice stating its intention to revoke or suspend the authorisation and inviting the body to make representations to the SRA on the intended revocation or suspension;
 - (bc) before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice in (ab) above is given to the body or any longer period specified in the notice.

Guidance notes

- Rule 22.1(a)(x)(C) refers to sections 90 and 176 of the LSA. Section 90 sets out the duty of non-authorised persons, as defined by the LSA, not to do anything which causes or substantially contributes to a breach by a licensed body, or by a manager or an employee of the licensed body who is an authorised person, of the duties imposed on them by section 176. Section 176 imposes the statutory duty on a regulated person to comply with the SRA's regulatory arrangements when practising through an SRA firm.

 Regulated person includes the firm itself as well as the managers and employees of the firm.
- (ii) Rule 22.1(b)(i) refers to the offence under paragraph 24(1) of Schedule 13 to the LSA. This is the offence of an unauthorised person who is required to notify the licensed body and the SRA of a proposal to take a step leading to acquiring a restricted interest in a licensed body taking the step prior to the SRA's approval. Rule 21.1(b)(ii) refers to breaches of the specific provisions about imposing conditions on approval of owners – see guidance note (ii) to rule 15 above. Rule 21.1(b)(iii) refers to paragraphs 31 (the SRA having an objection to a notifiable interest) and 36 (the SRA having an objection to an existing restricted interest) of Schedule 13 to the LSA.

(iii) Revocation and suspension of authorisation is a discretionary power of the SRA. The SRA is unlikely to revoke or suspend authorisation if doing so at that time would present any risk to clients, the public, the protection of public money or to any SRA investigation.

Rule 223 – Unforeseen temporary breach of certain conditions and eligibility criteria

223.1

Unforeseen breach of eligibility criteria

- (a) If due to an event which could not reasonably have been foreseen, a licensed body is no longer a licensable body as defined in Rule 1.2(q) because the body no longer has:
 - (i) the body no longer has at least one manager who is an individual and who is an authorised person (other than an RFL or an EEL) in relation to a licensed activity, or
 - (ii) the body no longer has a manager or interest holder who is a non-authorised person; or
 - (iii) non-authorised persons are no longer entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, at least 10% of the voting rights in any body which is a manager or interest holder of the licensed body;

but the SRA is informed of that fact within 7 days of the event first occurring and the body becomes a licensable body again within 28 days of the event first occurring, then the licensable body will be deemed to have remained a licensable body and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked or suspended under Rule 242.

(b) If due to an event which could not reasonably have been foreseen, a recognised body is no longer a legal services body as defined in Rule 1.2(o) because the body no longer has at least one manager who is:

- (i) a solicitor,
- (ii) an REL; or
- (iii) a legally qualified body with at least one manager who is a solicitor or an REL;

but the SRA is informed of the fact within 7 days of the event first occurring and the body becomes a legal services body again within 28 days of the event first occurring, then the recognised body will be deemed to have remained a legal services body and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked or suspended under Rule 242.

223.2

An LLP having fewer than two members

If an event which could not reasonably have been foreseen results in an LLP having fewer than two members, and therefore being in breach of Rule 16.3 (requirement to have at least two members) of the Practice Framework Rules, but within six months the situation is remedied, and provided the LLP has remained in a position to comply with the remainder of the SRA's regulatory arrangements including these rules and any conditions imposed on its authorisation, the LLP will be deemed to have remained in compliance with Rule 16.3 of the Practice Framework Rules and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked under Rule 242.

223.3

Death of member or shareowner of a company

- (a) If an authorised body is a company with shares and a member or shareowner dies who had been approved under Part 4 to be a member or shareowner of the body at the date of death, then, whether or not the personal representatives have been approved under Part 4, the personal representatives may replace the deceased member or shareowner in their capacity as personal representatives, provided that:
 - (i) no vote may be exercised by or on behalf of a personal representative (and no such vote may be accepted) unless all the personal representatives have been approved under Part 4 to be members or shareowners;
 - (ii) no personal representative may hold or own a share in that capacity for longer than 12 months from the date of death;
 - (iii) within 12 months of the death the authorised body must cancel or acquire the shares or ensure that they are held and owned by persons who can hold the interest in the body in compliance with Rule 8.6 (management and control), but without this resulting in RFLs being the only shareowners of a recognised body; and

- (iv) no vote may be exercised by or on behalf of any personal representative (and no such vote may be accepted) after the 12 month period has expired.
- (b) If, following the death of a member or shareowner, a company meets the requirements of (a) above, the company will be deemed to have remained in compliance with Rule 8.6 (management and control), and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked under Rule 242.

223.4

Member or shareowner ceasing to be approved

- (a) If an authorised body is a company with shares and a member or shareowner ceases to be approved under Part 4 to be a member or shareowner of the body, or ceases to exist as a body corporate, then provided that:
 - (i) no vote is exercised or accepted on the shares held by or on behalf of that member or shareowner.
 - (ii) a trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator (whether approved under Part 4 or not) replaces that member or shareowner in the capacity of trustee or liquidator for a period not exceeding six months from the date the member or shareowner ceased to be approved; and
 - (iii) the company cancels or acquires the shares within six months, or within that time ensures that the shares are held and owned by persons in compliance with Rule 8.6, but without this resulting in the body ceasing to be a licensable body (in the case of a licensed body), or ceasing to be a legal services body (in the case of a recognised body);

the company will be deemed to have remained in compliance with Rule 8.6 (management and control), and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked under Rule 242.

223.5

- (a) If an authorised body is a company with shares and a member or shareowner becomes insolvent but continues to hold an interest in the body in compliance with Rule 8.6, then the trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator (whether approved under Part 4 or not) may replace the insolvent member or shareowner in the capacity of trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator, provided that:
 - (i) no vote may be exercised by or on behalf of a trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator (and no such vote may be accepted) unless the trustee or liquidator can hold the interest in the company in compliance with Rule 8.6;
 - (ii) no trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator may hold or own a share in that capacity for longer than six months from the date of the insolvency;
 - (iii) within six months of the insolvency the company must cancel or acquire the shares or ensure that they are held and owned by persons who can hold an interest in the company in compliance with Rule 8.6, but without this resulting in the body ceasing to be a licensable body (in the case of a licensed body), or ceasing to be a legal services body (in the case of a recognised body); and
 - (iv) no vote may be exercised by or on behalf of any trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator (and no such vote may be accepted) after the six month period has expired.
- (b) If (a) above applies and a company meets its requirements, the company will be deemed to have remained in compliance with Rule 8.6 (management and control), and to that extent will not be liable to have its authorisation revoked under Rule 242.

223.6

Court of Protection deputy

- (a) A Court of Protection deputy appointed under section 19 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 may be a member or shareowner in that capacity, without breaching Rule 8.6 (management and control), provided that:
 - (i) the person in respect of whom the deputy has been appointed holds the interest in compliance with Rule 8.6; and
 - (ii) if the deputy is not a member or shareowner in compliance with Rule 8.6, no vote is exercised or accepted on the shares.
- (b) If (a) above applies and a company meets its requirements, the company will be deemed to have remained in compliance with Rule

PART 6 – CHANGES IN PARTNERSHIPS

Rule 23 - Change to the composition of a partnership

- 23.1 Authorisation of a partnership may continue despite a change in its composition, subject to Rule 23.2 and 23.3.

 - (i) is a solicitor or REL;
 - (ii) notifies the SRA within seven days;

- 24.2 Following such a partnership split, the SRA will if necessary decide which of the groups of former partners will continue to be covered by the existing authorisation and which must apply for a new authorisation, and may apportion authorisation fees and Compensation Fund contributions between the groups. Any such decision will be without prejudice to the outcome of any legal dispute between the former partners.

- 24.3 If the principal(s) in the new firm could not reasonably have commenced an application for authorisation in advance of the change:
 - (a) the new firm may practise from the date of the split provided that the following conditions are met:

- (b) only one remaining principal who needs to be authorised as a sole practitioner but could not reasonably have commenced an application in advance of the change:

- Any decision made under Rule 24.3 will be without prejudice to the outcome of any legal dispute between the former partners.

 - (a) the SRA must be notified within 7 days; and
